

Access to Wired Broadband Internet and the Effects on Price

The nine percent of counties that have access to only one provider are largely disadvantaged when it comes to price.

Note: The size of each bubble correlates to the number of counties. The average lowest price refers to the average of all lowest priced broadband speed plans available in the county.
Source: BroadbandNow